*We Support

The specific purpose of our non-profit is to provide funding to California's local communities that will benefit youth, Veterans, Individuals with special needs, education, conservation and other local activities. Our non-profit will also significantly support programs that focus on helping our veterans and their families, along with disabled and terminally ill youth and adults and their families. Our organization will also support children's hospitals and their patients. We also will raise awareness and enlist the public's aid and financial support.
